Mother Nurture Prenatal All Natural Milk Chocolate Truffles

It's hard to believe that these chocolate truffles provide all the benefits that it says it does, because I don't think I've ever encountered anything so decadent that's actually good for you! These creamy chocolate truffles are packed with Folic Acid, DHA, Calcium and Vitamin D to support mom and baby's health during pregnancy and breastfeeding and are a great compliment to your pre-natal vitamins. If you ever needed an excuse to indulge...well, now you have it! Ingredients for health. Indulgence for mom.

BellyBuds®

BellyBuds® is a specialized speaker system that gently adheres to your belly and allows you to safely play memory-shaping sound directly to the womb. Whether it's a soothing tune or a bond-forming voice message. BellyBuds is a safe and effective first step in connecting with your soon-to-be bundle of joy. Easy to use, discreet and good on the go. BellyBuds works anywhere, anytime.

A baby's hearing is fully developed at about 20 weeks. Memories start at 30. And with free access to the VoiceShare® by WavHello™ app, you and anyone you love can record messages, upload music, create playlists and even sing and send favorite songs that you can share with your child using BellyBuds.

Psi Bands

Psi Bands are stylish, drug-free acupressure wrist bands for the relief of nausea due to motion/travel sickness (i.e. cruising, flying/air turbulence, windy roads, the back of cabs/Uber, amusement park rides), as well as morning sickness, anesthesia and chemotherapy. Psi Bands are available in several fun colors, they're waterproof and adjustable for a personalized and comfortable fit. www.psibands.com $15/set

SoundBubs

Simply push on SoundBub's bellybutton to activate white noise to help your child drift off to sleep. You can also play music they already love by connecting any Bluetooth enabled device. SoundBub is compatible with WavHello's free VoiceShare® mobile app allowing anyone you love to record messages, lullabies or even a reading of a favorite story for your little one. SoundBub is perfectly portable with its handle that can hook onto any car seat or stroller and acts as a stand on flat surfaces.
